

Communication

The essential of volunteering activity

Sunayama Fuma

Japan... Disaster-prone country

2011.3.11 The Great East Japan Earthquake

The contribution of Volunteer

- The Removal of Debris
- The Psychological Support

Self introduction

Sunayama Fuma

Ishikawa, Japan

The Department of Science,
Biology, Tohoku University

No volunteering experiences until entering university

Rikuzentakata

- Iwate Prefecture
- Famous for cultivation of oyster and seaweed
- 13m tsunami hit on 3.11.
- The population
before after 24,246 ⇒ 22,489 (2014)
- Famous for the miracle pine tree
- Temporary housing
about 50 ⇒ 2

What I do as a Volunteer?

- The support for forming community
- The support for Children
- The storytelling of Disaster for other university student

The reason why I continue to go to Rikuzentakata

- The residents always say
“I’m glad to see you!”
“Thank you for giving such a fun time!”
“I want you to come again!”
- I can hear a valuable story of disaster victims.
- I want other students to do the same kind of experience in Rikuzentakata.

Volunteering Activity...

⇒ Provide an opportunity for people to communicate

- The essence of energy to live
- The essence of cooperation
- The essence of learning

Thank You for your listening!

